Dr. J. R. Hamilton,
Headmaster,
Ridley College,
ST. CATHARINES, Ontario.

My dear Dr. Hamilton:

You have probably noticed by press reports that the Council intends holding a Special Honour Ceremony to pay tribute to the late Honourable William Hamilton Merritt, the builder of the first Welland Canal, on the occasion of the official opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway in St. Lambert, Quebec, by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth on June 26th. The official ceremony in Memorial Park will take place here at three o'clock and it would be appreciated if the Ridley College Cadets, or some of them, could serve in the capacity of a Guard of Honour. The St. Catharines Sea Cadet Corps is also being asked to be present.

If the holiday season will not permit the cadets to attend, the City Council is hoping that you and the other officials and teachers at the college can be in attendance. This invitation also is extended to the ladies.

For your information, attached is a first draft of the contemplated programme, which, as progress is made, will, no doubt, require some changes.

The City Council will greatly appreciate your favourable reply.

Thanking you, I am,

Yours faithfully,

HHS:BB

CITY CLERK.
